Course Description

Start ups need to consider the financial and quantitative underpinnings of their business from day one from ability to size the market and assess the financial strength of competitors, though procing their product, building financial models to grow the business, budget management and the different funding options and their implications. This course covers the financial mechanics of developing and running a start up.

Course Goals

Get a sense of the concepts and thinking needed to consider the finance aspects of your venture from valuation to budget.
Grading

Assignments

Learning Outcomes

Practical insights applied to own ventures on financial modeling and valuation

Lecturer Office Hours

Contact information:

For Eden - Bar Schneidman (EA).

bar@aleph.vc / +972-54-5896-088

Reading List

As assigned by lecturer