Course Description

This course involves weekly sessions run by the Argov Fellows. Each student will be responsible for leading one 60 minute session during the course of the year. The seminar should be based on an interest/hobby/personal background that the student would like to share with the other members of the class.

Course Goals

The course is designed to facilitate the Argov Fellows learning from each other.

Grading

Each student is required to attend all sessions and to present for one session during the course of the year. The course is not graded.
