Get to Know Me

Adi Yinon, MA

Group Facilitator and Team Lead

Adi is a social entrepreneur, content creator and developer, lecturer, and group facilitator.
She holds a BA and MA in social work (community track) from Bar-Ilan University. She has extensive experience establishing and developing social programs with urban and community impact, and leading change processes with authorities, groups, and organizations.
Adi strongly believes in people, in change and growth, and in our ability to create a better reality for ourselves and those around us.