Introduction

The Reichman University Student Association is proud to present one of the key tools for your success during your studies – the clubs.

The university's clubs are not only a platform for enriching general and academic knowledge but also a true bridge to the job market, providing real professional experience. Here, you'll find a place to express yourself, initiate, and grow, while building connections with leading industry professionals.

We invite you to take advantage of these rare opportunities: participate, learn, explore, and think outside the box. The clubs offer fertile ground for personal growth, unique learning, and leadership and professional opportunities that will serve as your entry ticket to the "real world."

The clubs are a unique social platform and one of the crown jewels of Reichman University. Here, you'll meet students from all programs and years, expand your network, and enjoy shared experiences beyond classroom hours.

The clubs are an essential part of what makes Reichman University more than just an academic institution – a home and nurturing environment where students develop on both personal and social levels.

Currently, the university offers over 60 clubs and programs in various fields, so everyone can find a place that feels like home.

Remember – you're here to grow, develop, and realize your personal potential, beyond academic learning and knowledge. The clubs are the key to success.

The Student Association's vision focuses on supporting students, providing tools for success, and promoting values of Zionism, partnership, initiative, and responsibility. We are committed to the student's interest and invite you to be part of an active and supportive community, shaping the future generation of Israeli society.

Wishing you a successful academic year, full of personal and professional growth.

Sincerely,

The Reichman University Student Union

RU MUN

Discover the Club

Welcome to Model United Nations at Reichman University. We are an enthusiastic group of students who experience global diplomatic simulations, develop public speaking skills, and expand our knowledge of international relations. Along with international conferences, we also organize fun social activities to turn you from a team into a family! With our amazing management team, you will receive all the support you need for success as representatives of Reichman University at conferences in Israel and around the world.

Who are we looking for?

We are looking for motivated people with an interest in global issues, who are ready for challenges and creative thinking. If you like to learn about diplomacy, try negotiating and create experiences, you belong with us. It doesn't matter if you have experience with the UN model or if you are a complete beginner - if you have a passion for global affairs, public speaking or you simply want to be part of a vibrant community, we would love to see you with us!

INTERNATIONAL NEGOTIATION CLUB
STUDENT UNION REICHMAN UNIVERSITY

Discover the Club

The International Negotiation Club at RRIS offers a unique opportunity to develop practical negotiation skills for business, personal, or political situations. Members gain hands-on experience, strategic thinking, and conflict resolution through expert guidance and guest lecturers.
Open to all students, the club emphasizes skill development and real-world application.

Who are we looking for?

We are looking for ambitious and curious students from all years and degree programs, both from the Israeli and international schools, who are eager to develop their negotiation skills. No prior experience in negotiation is necessary—just an openness to learning and a drive to master this essential skill! The most suitable students are those ready to challenge themselves, think strategically, and apply their knowledge to real-life situations, whether in business, personal, or government contexts.
