Get to Know Me

IDC HERZLIYA | School of Psychology

MAYTIV Center for Research and Practice in Positive Psychology

Nurit Nahum Hurvitz, MA

Group Facilitator

Nurit holds an MBA specializing in organizational consulting and human-resource development from the College of Management. She is a senior career coach, certified coach trainer, and group facilitator with about two decades of rich experience guiding people through change, growth, and career-development processes. In her role as an organizational-development professional, she has guided managers and teams through significant change processes. She currently leads coaching processes for managers and employees and facilitates workshops in organizations, specializing in understanding the internal drivers, skills, and values that shape personal and professional success.