

Hello Reichman University Students and Colleagues,
We are pleased to announce the launch of

The Neville Shulman Future Accord Looking Beyond

This important initiative seeks to engage the intellectual creativity of Reichman University in envisioning a better future for the Middle East Region and all its peoples. Neville Shulman CBE, based in the United Kingdom, is a longstanding supporter of Reichman University and has proposed this Project which we are happy to support.

Call for Papers:

We are therefore inviting all those involved with the University to submit papers of any length with proposals which can encourage all the countries and peoples of the Middle East Region to find more ways to harmonize together more productively and securely.
We plan this to be an ongoing and continuing annual project.

Submission Guidelines:

Each proposal must include the candidate's personal details:
full name, study track, telephone number, and email address.
Submissions to be made in English.
Please ensure to receive a confirmation of your submission.

How to Submit:

Please send soonest your completed papers to Ms. Noa Idan at: noa.idan@runi.ac.il

Publication and Recognition:

A number of papers will be published on the Reichman University website, compiled into a special booklet and will be forwarded to relevant decision-makers.

Join us in shaping the future of the Middle East through The Neville Shulman Future Accord.
Your insights and ideas can make a difference.
