

Dr. Adi Koll

Education

Columbia University School of law, New York, NY

JSD, Doctor of the Science of Law, February 2007

Honors: Conanima Foundation study grant

ISEF Foundation study grant

Columbia University School of law, New York, NY

LL.M. Master in Law, Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar, May 2002

Honors: Full tuition waiver – Columbia Law School

Ford foundation study grant

The Hebrew University, Jerusalem, Israel

LL.B. Law degree, March 2001, Magna Cum Laude

Honors: Dean's honor roll

Hebrew University law School Scholarship for outstanding academic achievement

"Minerva" Center for Human Rights Scholarship for legal research on child homelessness

Prizes

The Edmond J. Safra Award for Excellence in social contribution, 2012

Knesset Chairman's Award for minimizing social gaps in Israel, 2011

Experience

The Inter Disciplinary Center

Dean of Students

Herzliya, Israel

April '15 - Today

The Knesset (Israel's Parliament)

Member of Knesset, Chairman of the public petition committee

Jerusalem, Israel

Feb '13 – April '15

Universit'a Ba'am (The "Access for All" Program) Tel Aviv University

Founder, Director and Academic Instructor

Tel Aviv, Israel

June '05- June '13

Founded the "Universit'a Ba'am" (The "Access for All" Program) in Tel Aviv University (TAU). The "Universit'a Ba'am" opens the doors of TAU to marginalized groups in Israel and invites them to participate in special academic course in Law, Medicine, Business and Psychology taught by TAU students. Created and designed the program, raised the necessary funds for its establishment and implementation in TAU as well as managed and coordinated the work of 20 employees, 40 TAU students and 1000 participants each year. Designed the curriculum for the academic courses and teach a preparatory class, in which TAU students meet the target groups, acquire leadership skills and deal with social responsibility issues. Since 2010, Founded and head a second brunch of the program at Ben Gurion University.

www.unibaam.tau.ac.il

Breira (Choice)      The Hebrew University Law School,
Founder and Director, Breira (Choice)

Jerusalem, Israel
Sept. '97- July '01

Established the first public interest law center in the country, at the Hebrew University. Managed and coordinated 120 student volunteers within the three divisions of the Center: legal aid, legal advocacy for women and children, and legal education programs for adolescents in at-risk neighborhoods.

www.brera.co.il

The Hebrew University Law School
Clinical Instructor

Jerusalem, Israel
Sept. '98- July '01

Designed a unique program geared at reforming the juvenile justice system through the participation of juvenile offenders in an innovative weekly seminar as apart of their probation conditions. Negotiated reduction of sentences for successful participants with the Chief Juvenile Judge and the Chief Probation Officer. Supervising more than 100 juvenile delinquents participated in the seminar each year and instructing 25-law students who were in charge of teaching the seminar. Negotiated the implementation of this program in London as apart of the 2001 reform in the probation system in London with the London Chief probation officer, and assist in creating cooperation between LSE (London School of Economic) and the London Probation Office for the execution of the program.

“Knesset Israel” (Israeli Parliament),
Assistant to Tamar Gozanski, Israeli “Knesset” Member,

Jerusalem, Israel
Oct. '99 – July '00

Assisted government member in charge of Committee for Children's Rights. Promulgated children's rights through legislation, arranged conferences on issues regard violations of children's rights. Drafted legislation on children's rights, formulated discussion on the implication of the International Convention on Children's rights. Present children's right issues at Knesset meeting and public events.

IDF Mandatory Service,
Air Force Intelligent Commander

Israel
Aug. '94 – Mar '96

Languages: Hebrew: native fluency, English: native fluency