Only a formal notice in writing from the student, submitted to the Admissions Office as well as the Tuition Department, will be considered valid in this matter.

Reichman University will charge the student partial tuition, at a rate based on the date the notification was received. The exact dates are detailed below for each graduate program separately. The earlier Reichman University is notified, the less the student is charged.

Notification of cancellation, cessation or freezing of studies, at any date, will result in the cancellation of the student's entitlement to a scholarship or discounts, which will be cancelled retroactively according to the guidelines of the specific scholarship or discount.

Only after all of the instructions above are completed and all tuition payments are settled in accordance with the cancellation schedule, will the student's account be closed.

THE LEAH AND ITZHAK SHECHTER CENTER FOR PSYCHOLOGICAL COUNSELING SERVICES

The Center for Psychological Counseling Services provides interested students with the opportunity to receive help and support dealing with various problems and challenges that students may encounter during the period of their studies.

Students who apply to the center may receive short-term counseling or up to two semesters of ongoing therapy through personal meetings with professionals who have extensive experience treating students from a wide variety of cultures and backgrounds. Group meetings or workshops dealing with concerns relevant to students may also be available.

What are the most common problems for which students apply for counseling?

Students apply for personal counseling for a wide variety of reasons, which may include the following: culture shock or experiencing difficulty coping with the many challenges inherent in being in a new and unfamiliar environment; difficulties with school or job; struggling with personal or professional identity; social, interpersonal, or romantic difficulties; dealing with grief or loss; problems occurring in the family which have a stressful impact, such as illness, divorce, or financial crisis; feeling overly anxious or depressed; coping with attention deficit disorder and/or learning disabilities. These problems may be new to the student or may be issues from the past that are resurfacing or intensifying when students are far from home and/or feeling alone and isolated.

Sometimes due to a student's particular circumstances, he or she might be better served by seeing a professional in the community. In these cases, the student will receive help with an appropriate referral.

Students interested in booking an initial consultation are kindly requested to contact our administrative coordinator, tel.: +972-9-960-2872 email: psyhelp@runi.ac.il.

Please note that the Psychological Counseling Services are not equipped to provide long-term care for students who need continuous psychological or psychiatric support. Therefore, students dealing with ongoing mental health issues are strongly advised to set up a professional support system before coming to Israel. We are happy to provide more information about the various options if needed.

For more information regarding our services, please see our website.

EXAM ACCOMMODATIONS FOR LEARNING DISABILITIES/ADHD

Reasonable accommodations are provided by Reichman University to students who have been diagnosed with learning disabilities or attention deficit disorder. The accommodations are awarded to minimize as much as possible the negative effects that these difficulties can have on students' performance, while simultaneously maintaining the exam's reliability and validity. Therefore, the exam accommodations that the University provides are designed such that they do not alter the essential character of the exams, i.e., the scope of the material tested, or the essence of the exams' demands upon students (for example, comprehension, applying knowledge, etc.).

All students dealing with a learning disability and/or ADHD who wish to apply for exam accommodations must submit relevant documentation. International students dealing with a learning disability and/or ADHD must submit acceptable documentation according to the guidelines listed on our website, under Students with Learning Disabilities. After the documentation has been submitted, a meeting with a psychologist from the Counseling Center will be scheduled where the eligibility for specific accommodations will be discussed. Documents must be submitted no later than five weeks before the end of the semester in order to guarantee the request will be processed in time for that semester's exams.

Students who finished high school in Israel and completed the Bagrut in Hebrew, who wish to receive accommodations, are obligated to submit a particular kind of diagnostic report called MATAL. Please make sure you get all the information about the MATAL evaluation process, how it works, who it applies to, and who might be exempt, by referring to the Hebrew website.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR

FALL SEMESTER CONCLUSION, EXAM SCHEDULE AND POTENTIAL FOR TIME OFF

Exams begin immediately following the conclusion of fall semester. In accordance with traditional Israeli higher education models, IDC offers students the opportunity to take a first sitting of exams (moed aleph) generally during the first four weeks between semesters. Students will receive their moed aleph exam schedule at the beginning of the semester. If a student fails the moed aleph exam, is not happy with the grade or had to miss the exam due to unforeseen circumstances, he/she is entitled to sit for a second exam (moed bet). These second exams are scheduled immediately following the moed aleph exams. Therefore, each student has a highly individual schedule, very often with no vacation whatsoever between fall and spring semester dependent on: 1) moed aleph schedule, assigned during the first week of the semester; 2) the student's desire to be present for moed bet/retakes.

If you are certain that you will not need a retake, you can book your return ticket date upon receipt of your moed aleph exam schedule (following your final exam time). If you are booking a ticket to Israel and are concerned about choosing a return ticket date, we strongly urge you to purchase a "flexible fare" ticket that allows you to change your return date with no penalty fee. This will allow you to alter your date according to our exam schedule and need (or lack thereof) to sit for moed bet exams. While this class ticket is more expensive than a ticket with inflexible dates, it is significantly less expensive than altering the return date on an inflexible fare ticket if the need arises.

SPRING SEMESTER CONCLUSION, EXAM SCHEDULE AND EXTENDED BREAK

Exams begin immediately following the conclusion of spring semester. Students will receive their moed aleph exam schedule at the beginning of semester. As described above, following moed aleph exams students are entitled to sit for moed bet exams. Spring semester moed bet exams are generally scheduled through August. When students have concluded their exams (based on their highly personal schedule and desire to take moed bet exams), they are on semester break until mid-October when the next school year begins.
