Get to Know Me

IDC HERZLIYA | School of Psychology

MAYTIV Center for Research and Practice in Positive Psychology

Hanan Ablasi, MA

Group Facilitator, Head of Arab Society Division

Hanan is an experienced lecturer, group facilitator, and entrepreneur who works across sectors, religions, and cultures. She is an expert in education and positive psychology and leads the Maytiv Center's activity in the Arab society.

Hanan holds a BA in Hebrew from Levinsky College of Education and an MA in applied educational psychology from the College of Israel. She has extensive experience in counseling, psychotherapy, and developing training programs within the Palestinian Authority and the national education system. Hanan is a director with binational training.