Get to Know Me

Noga Meron, MA

Senior Group Facilitator

Noga is a group facilitator and personal consultant in organizational development, with over 10 years of experience in management and team-development processes in organizations and educational institutions.
She holds a BA in behavioral sciences (psychology, sociology, and anthropology) from Ben-Gurion University of the Negev, and an MSc in management sciences — organizational behavior — from Tel Aviv University.
She also completed personal-coaching studies at CTI and holds a certification in group facilitation from the two-year program at the School of Social Work at Tel Aviv University.
Noga currently guides and facilitates groups on leadership and management skill development and positive psychology in organizations and various educational institutions.