Jaysh al-Fatah has been the largest in size and scope of the recent alliances. Led by JN and Ahrar al-Sham, Jaysh al-Fatah was formed from seven Islamist groups which represent a geographically and ideologically diverse force.

The only commonality amongst participants is their purported links to Turkey, Qatar, or JAN.

Tasked with expelling government forces from southern Idlib and northern Hama in March 2015, Jaysh al-Fatah has been successful.
