Get to Know Me

Hadar Goner, MA

Group Facilitator

Hadar is a content creator and multidisciplinary facilitator. She holds a BA in a multidisciplinary arts program from Tel Aviv University and an MA in literature with a specialization in creative writing from Ben-Gurion University of the Negev.
She is also certified in movement therapy from Sapir College. Alongside facilitating positive-psychology groups, she creates and facilitates movement and writing workshops for personal development and nurturing creativity. She believes in loving, fruitful connections between people and between fields.