Get to Know Me

Orit Shnaidman, MA

Group Facilitator

Orit is a group facilitator and organizational consultant. She holds a BA in behavioral sciences from Ben-Gurion University and an MA in social-organizational psychology from Tel Aviv University. She also completed the two-year Gestalt-studies program at the School of Social Work at Tel Aviv University. Orit has extensive experience as an organizational-development manager in the business world, and today works in coaching and consulting for managers and in facilitating groups within organizations.